

Gunjan Pal tops Him Jyoti school with 96.8 %. In the much awaited CBSE class X result, announced on 6th May 2019. Him Jyoti School girls once again proved their mettle.

All the 35 girls passed with first division with 13 girls scoring 90% and above, 16 between 81-91% and the remaining 6 girls above 60% Gunjan Pal from Pithoragarh scored 96.8. This is indeed a great achievement for the girls hailing from remote hilly areas of Uttarakhand and Sikkim. A commendable accomplishment by the tenth batch, to stand with pride and at par, with other reputed mainstream schools of Dehradun.

Him Jyoti School was established in the year 2005, by the then Governor of Uttarakhand, Shri Sudarshan Agarwalji, to provide free quality education, to bright girls from economically disadvantaged families.

The school which started with a noble endeavour to empower girls is now a tangible realization for the world to acknowledge.
