

With the announcement of CBSE Class XII results declared today 2nd May 2019, Him Jyoti School again stole the limelight with excellent performance of all the girls. Ms. Sonia Rawat is the school topper with over all 98%. Six girls in History, three girls in Hindi and one girl in Geography scored 100 %. This is no small feat as the students in Him Jyoti start formal English education from Class V and hail from the remote areas of Uttarakhand and Sikkim. Him Jyoti School provides free education to the underprivileged girls. This wonderful performance is indeed a standing example of sincere, work and right vision, which has the power to impact change in the world.
